

Descendants of Josiah Clawson

Generation 1

1. JOSIAH¹ CLAWSON was born before 1745 in Scotland. He died before 1781 in Tyrone Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. He married ? ?.

Notes for Josiah Clawson:

Presently, I can only trace the Clawson branch to about the middle of the eighteenth century. The earliest Clawson I can trace is a Josiah Clawson who was on the tax list in 1763 for Tyrone Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. From several different sources, there were 5 Clawson brothers. Two of them, Richard and Peter Clawson fought for the colonists in the Revolutionary War as members of the Cumberland County militia. Also in the early 1780's, Peter and Richard can be found in the tax records for Tyrone Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania as well as a widow Clawson. Tyrone Township is now a part of Perry County, Pennsylvania. This, I assume, means that Josiah Clawson has died. After this time, some or all of the five brothers moved to Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania. About this time according to family lore, these brothers got into some type of argument and the 5 brothers went to four different areas of the state. When this argument occurred, it was also told from family lore that the brothers changed the spellings of the last name as a final statement in this disagreement. This is probably how the different spellings of the last name occurred. The spellings that have existed were Clawson (supposedly the original spelling), Closson (still exists today), Clossin, and a few other variations.

Richard and Josiah Clawson moved to Indiana County, Pennsylvania in the Blacklick Township area. These two brothers were in the same area according to the tax and census records, their farms were near to each other. From tax records, they must have moved into Indiana County before 1807. Peter remained in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania and it is believed he was poor from the legal records that exist for him. The members of this branch largely spelled their last name Closson. There is a Peter who had lived in Washington Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania around 1800 and it is now determined that he is not directly related to the Clawsons mentioned above even though some of his descendants appeared in other parts of my family tree. Daniel may be a brother to Peter, Richard, and Josiah but may also be a nephew to another brother not yet found. There is also a John Clawson married to Elizabeth Wincher who I have a similar problem. Is he a brother or a nephew to Peter, Richard, and Josiah? I have them listed as brothers since this is what most researchers believe. Daniel and John eventually made their way to Indiana County where Daniel went to Blacklick Township and John went to Conemaugh Township.

Another interesting item is there was a Josiah Clawson who married Margaret Buckalew in New Jersey and they were both born and grew up in New Jersey. According to the Buckalew Association website, they had at least two children named Peter and Richard. Also from some research done by others on the Clawsons as well as on the LDS website, they also have Josiah marrying Margaret Buckalew. Josiah's parents were Thomas and Anne Clawson. Thomas' parents were William and Mary Clawson. These families can be traced to a Claus Cornelius Van Schouw who came to America in the mid-1600's from the Netherlands. In 2009, I submitted a DNA sample for genealogical purposes. The results were compared to several members from the Van Schouw line and there is no connection between my Clawson line and the Van Schouw line. In comparing my DNA to different databases, my ancestors were Eastern European and/or Scandinavian. My DNA is similar to the populations in Latvia, Russia, Poland, and Norway. This fits into a Haplogroup of R1a1.

If my Clawson ancestors were of Scottish heritage and with the DNA results mentioned previously along with some general genealogical data of the Clawson name in Scotland, the Clawson family is of Viking descent. They may have come from the Orkneys (Islands). If one looks at the spelling variation of Closson, this is a further variation of the surname Clouston. The Clouston family is an old family that settled in the Orkneys around 1000 AD from Norway and had ties into the Norwegian monarchy. Around 1400, the Orkneys were given by Norway to Scotland and these people from the Orkneys intermixed with the native Scots. As of now, I haven't found anyone from the Clouston family who has submitted to a DNA test.

Generation 1 (con't)

Something that may pan out is I have been talking a little bit with David Keswick, a member of the Clawson tree. He is a college professor in Michigan. He thinks that the Clawsons are from the Pitlochry and Perthshire region of Scotland. The Donaheys and the Fergusons are from around this area. He thinks that the Clawsons settled in Indiana County with other people from the area in Scotland that they lived. David has some friends in that area of Scotland who are trying to confirm this. The Clawsons in that area are orginally from Scandanavia (possibly Viking or maybe Norwegian) and they moved to Scotland near or before 1000 AD. Also, the Clawsons in Scotland were not affiliated with any of the clans, according to David.

Also, I came across a website that would sell you your family history to you for $20 (A 1700 word write-up.). They had two listings for Clawson from the British Isles. The Clawsons from Scotland that they would supply were from Norway and originally landed in the Orkney Islands at the northern tip of Scotland around 1000 AD. I haven't bought it so I don't know what else it has. But maybe there could be something here.

The website is: www.traceit.com.

Tyrone Township is now part of Perry County, Pennsylvania.

His name could be Josiah or John. There is a tax record for Josiah Clawson that is from 1763 for Tyrone Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania.

At this time, I am not sure that Daniel and John are sons of this person. They are probably related to him some way.

This is from the Quarter Session Docket 4, 1768-1772 for Cumberland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for ? ?:

There is a widow Clawson on the tax records for 1781, 1782, and 1785, in Tyrone Township,

Generation 1 (con't)

Cumberland County (now Perry County), Pennsylvania. She has 20 acres, 1 horse, and 2 heads of cattle except in 1785 she only has one head of cattle.

Josiah Clawson and ? ? had the following children:

2. i. PETER² CLOSSON¹ (son of Josiah Clawson and ? ?) was born between 1755-1775 in Scotland². He died on April 01, 1837¹. He married ELIZABETH ?. She was born between 1755-1775.
3. ii. RICHARD CLAWSON³⁻⁴ (son of Josiah Clawson and ? ?) was born in 1760 in Scotland. He died on January 31, 1826 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania⁴. He married Sarah Mitchell (daughter of John Mitchell) in 1778. She was born about 1760 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania⁴⁻⁵. She died on April 19, 1827 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania⁴⁻⁵.
4. iii. JOSIAH CLAWSON (son of Josiah Clawson and ? ?) was born about 1770 in Pennsylvania⁶. He died on March 09, 1854 in Pennsylvania⁷. He married Jane Miller in 1788 in Pennsylvania⁸. She was born about 1772 in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania⁶. She died on July 25, 1859 in Pennsylvania¹.
5. iv. ELSIE CLAWSON⁹ (daughter of Josiah Clawson and ? ?) was born in Pennsylvania¹⁰. She married Archibald Kelly (son of Robert Kelly and Elizabeth ?) on May 10, 1793 in Carlisle, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania¹¹. He was born in Pennsylvania¹⁰. He died about 1822¹¹.
6. v. DANIEL CLAWSON¹² (son of Josiah Clawson and ? ?) was born in 1777 in Hollidaysburg, Blair County, Pennsylvania¹³. He died in 1854 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. He married Margaret Catherine Hollis in 1799 in Blair County, Pennsylvania¹⁴. She was born after 1774 in Blair County, Pennsylvania.
7. vi. JOHN CLAWSON^{3, 15-16} (son of Josiah Clawson and ? ?) was born in 1781 in Burrell Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania¹⁷. He died after 1830. He married Elizabeth Wincher in 1803 in Pennsylvania¹⁸. She was born between 1775-1784 in Pennsylvania.

Generation 2

2. PETER² CLOSSON (Josiah¹ Clawson)¹ was born between 1755-1775 in Scotland². He died on April 01, 1837¹. He married ELIZABETH ?. She was born between 1755-1775.

Notes for Peter Closson:

Peter was a member of the Fifth Company, Fifth Battalion of Cumberland County Militia.

For the Tax Records of Tyrone Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania for 1781, 1782, and 1785, there are records of Peter. He is listed as a Freeman.

According to the 1790 Census for Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, Peter was married and had 1 male over 16 years old and 4 under 16 years old. There are also 2 females listed.

According to the 1800 census, Peter was in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

According to the 1810 census, Peter was in Frankstown, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

According to the 1820 census, Peter was in Frankstown, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Peter was in the Cumberland County Militia in 1782 in Capt. John Buchanan's Company.

Peter doesn't appear in the 1830 census, probably died before this.

Peter was probably very poor since there are records that there were financial judgements brought against him.

The date of death (April 1, 1837) is based on the buying of a coffin by his son (James) at the McFarland Funeral Home.

Generation 2 (con't)

Peter came from Scotland and settled in the Scotch Valley, east of the Allegheny Mountains in the 1700's.

Peter Closson and Elizabeth ? had the following children:

8. i. ALEXANDER³ CLOSSON¹⁹⁻²⁰ (son of Peter Closson and Elizabeth ?) was born on April 19, 1780 in Pennsylvania²¹. He died on May 23, 1835 in Allegheny Township, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania²⁰⁻²¹. He married Elizabeth Sleppy (daughter of Daniel Sleppy and Margaret Elizabeth Dewalt) about 1816. She was born in 1790.

She died on May 15, 1866 in Cromwell Township, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania. She married DANIEL YOUNG HILEMAN (son of John Michael Hileman and Anna Maria Young). He was born on September 24, 1799. He died on December 03, 1874.
 - ix. JANE CLOSSON¹ (daughter of Peter Closson and Elizabeth ?) was born in 1801 in Pennsylvania. She married (1) ? ROSE. She married (2) JOE JONES.
3. RICHARD² CLAWSON (Josiah¹)³⁻⁴ was born in 1760 in Scotland. He died on January 31, 1826 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania⁴. He married Sarah Mitchell (daughter of John Mitchell) in 1778. She was born about 1760 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania⁴⁻⁵. She died on April 19, 1827 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania⁴⁻⁵.

Notes for Richard Clawson:

Richard was a member of the Fifth Company, Fifth Battalion of Cumberland County Militia, returned July 31, 1780.

According to the tax records of Tyrone Township, Cumberland County (now Perry County), Pennsylvania, Richard paid taxes in 1781, 1782, and 1785. He is listed as a Freeman in 1781, and is listed in 1782 as having one horse.

In 1788, Richard was on the tax records for Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

According to the 1790 census for Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, there was one male over 16 years old, 4 males under 16 years old, and 3 females.

In 1798, Richard was on the tax records for Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Generation 2 (con't)

For the 1807 tax record for Blacklick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania, Richard is listed as a farmer.

According to the 1810 and 1820 censuses, Richard was living in Blacklick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

According to Clawson folklore, 5 brothers came to the U.S. and it was believed they came from England. In the last 10 to 15 years, it is now believed that they came from Scotland. Anyway, after they came here, there was a big argument and the 4 of the brothers went different ways and moved to different parts of the Pennsylvania. When they did, each one changed the spelling of their last name. Supposedly, Richard kept the original spelling. It appears that Richard and Josiah stayed together and moved to Indiana County. It appears that Peter, James, and Alexander appeared to stay in the Blair and Huntingdon Counties of Pennsylvania. Similar stories are told in other distant portions of the Clawson tree.

The name Clawson was probably not the name of the ancestors who lived in Scotland. The name might have been changed since there was a war going on in England at the time they migrated and they wanted to protect themselves in case someone would try to track them. There was a program on the History Channel about Scottish clans. At the time that Richard Clawson would have come to America, the English were doing an ethnic cleansing of the Highland Scottish Clans since they were loyal to the Stuarts (Stewarts) who were trying to take back the throne of England from King George I. The Clawson ancestors maybe were part of these clans who were being eradicated by the English. Many thousands of Scots fled to U.S., Canada, and Australia during this time. The clans who were being eradicated were in allegiance to the McDonalds.

The Clawson brothers originally were living in the Tyrone Township, Cumberland County (now Perry County) area of Pennsylvania at the time of the Revolutionary War. Later they moved to the Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania where the supposed argument occurred. Records are available that Richard and Peter fought for the colonists in the Revolutionary War.

Richard Clawson and Sarah Mitchell had the following children:

15. i. BENJAMIN RICHARD³ CLAWSON^{3-4, 16} (son of Richard Clawson and Sarah Mitchell) was born on August 27, 1781 in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania. He married (1) SARAH BENNETT about 1830. She was born in 1789 in Pennsylvania⁶. He married (2) SARAH ANN DONAHEY (daughter of William Donahey and Mary Caldwell) about 1823 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. She was born about 1800 in Indiana County, Pennsylvania¹². She died in October 1846 in Indiana County, Pennsylvania¹. He married (3) SARAH MOOREHEAD about 1830. She was born on March 15, 1789³¹. She died on December 04, 1871 in Indiana County, Pennsylvania³¹.
21. viii. ROSS CLAWSON (son of Richard Clawson and Sarah Mitchell) was born in 1798 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. He died on December 29, 1828 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. He married Laura Davis (daughter of Silas Davis and Eunice Geer) about 1820 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. She was born on January 17, 1806 in Warrensburg, Warren, New York.
22. ix. JANE CLAWSON (daughter of Richard Clawson and Sarah Mitchell) was born in 1800⁷. She died before 1831. She married JOHN MCNEIL. He was born about 1796 in Indiana County, Pennsylvania³².
23. x. SARAH CLAWSON¹⁵ (daughter of Richard Clawson and Sarah Mitchell) was born on April 15, 1800 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania²⁷. She died on May 17, 1876²⁷. She married William B. Donahey (son of William Donahey and Mary Caldwell) about 1821 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania¹². He was born on July 20, 1797 in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania²⁷. He died on July 30, 1878 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania²⁷.
24. xi. HANNAH CLAWSON¹⁵ (daughter of Richard Clawson and Sarah Mitchell) was born about 1805 in Black Lick Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. She died about 1831 in Blairsville, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. She married James D. Donahey (son of William Donahey and biological son of Mary Caldwell) in 1822 in Pennsylvania¹⁸. He was born on September 20, 1802 in Indiana County, Pennsylvania²⁷. He died on December 27, 1881 in Burrell Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania²⁷.
4. JOSIAH² CLAWSON (Josiah¹) was born about 1770 in Pennsylvania⁶. He died on March 09, 1854 in Pennsylvania⁷. He married Jane Miller in 1788 in Pennsylvania⁸. She was born about 1772 in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania⁶. She died on July 25, 1859 in Pennsylvania¹.

CLAWSON. The Clawson Family of Indiana county has been settled here for over a century, and its members in every generation have been respected and useful citizens, a credit to the community and to the honored name they bear.

Benjamin Clawson, the first of the family in this part of the State, was born Aug. 27, 1781, in Huntingdon county, Pa., son Richard and Sarah (Mitchell) Clawson. He grew to manhood there, and came to western Pennsylvania when a young man, about the close of the eighteenth century, crossing the Alleghenies and making a settlement in what is now Blacklick township, Indiana county, then, however, a part of Westmoreland county. He became the owner of a large tract of land in what was a that time a wilderness, and experienced the various phases of pioneer life. He engaged in general farming and made what improvements he could upon his land, residing there until his death, which occurred when he was past eighty years of age. He is buried in Hopewell Church cemetery in Blacklick township. Mr. Clawson was twice married, the first time Feb. 21, 1811, to Mrs. Mary (Donahey) Lowers, widow of Robert Lowers, by which union there were six children, born as follows: Richard B., Dec. 15, 1811; Mary, Nov. 16, 1814 (married Samuel Bennett); Sarah, Sept. 10, 1816 (married John Clawson); William, Sept. 1, 1818 (died in infancy); William (2), Oct. 6, 1819 (also died young); Benjamin, Oct. 10, 1824. After the death of his first wife Mr. Clawson married, Dec. 1, 1838, Mary Huffman. There were no children by this marriage.

Generation 3 (con't)

Richard B. Clawson, eldest son of Benjamin and Mary Clawson, was born Dec. 15, 1811. What education he received was obtained in the subscription schools then conducted, but for only a few months in the year. He grew to manhood in the township of his birth, and like his father made farming his occupation, his industrious and frugal habits enabling him to add to his possessions until he was one of the largest land owners in this part of the county, having upward of a thousand acres, part of which was in Green township. There his daughters and sons-in-laws settled. He spent all his life in Blacklick township, dying there in June, 1896, and was buried in the family plot in Hopewell cemetery. He was a member of the Hopewell M. E. Church, and in political belief a Democrat. On Dec. 15, 1831, Mr. Clawson was married to Rachel Davis, whose ancestors were natives of New England. She died in July, 1897, in Blacklick township, and is buried in Hopewell cemetery. Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clawson: Benjamin, born July 11, 1833, is mentioned below; Eunice, born Aug. 16, 1835, died Feb. 27, 1838; Mary Ann, born March 31, 1838, married John Donahey and settled in Green township, where she died; Silas, born July 22, 1840, died March 2, 1858, Gere, born July 31, 1847, is mentioned below; Rebecca, born March 8, 1852, married Benjamin Donahey and resided in Green township; Cynthia, born March 25, 1860, died aged seventeen years.

Benjamin Clawson was born on the old Clawson homestead in Blacklick township and attended the local public schools. Working with his father, who owned and operated over six hundred acres at that time, he became thoroughly familiar with farm work and management, and after starting out for himself became the owner of a tract of ? acres. He followed stock raising as well as general farming, and made extensive improvements upon his property during his active years, working hard and prospering deservedly. His well-directed labors and intelligent attention to all the details of his work placed him among the foremost farmers of his township, and few of its citizens have been more thoroughly respected for substantial worth and useful lives. In the last few years he has given up arduous work, enjoying the fruits of his early industry in comfortable retirement. He has never taken any part in the public affairs of his locality, supporting the Democratic party but not associating himself with any of its activities. However, he has been a leading member and worker of the Hopewell M. E. Church, at present serving as trustee and superintendent of the Sunday school.

On Oct. 12, 1897, Mr. Clawson was united in marriage with Caroline Ferguson, a native of Blacklick township, daughter of Elliott and Hulda (Clawson) Ferguson. They have had one child, Anna Mary, born July 16, 1898, who graduated from the township school in 1912, and is now attending high school at Blairsville. Mrs. Clawson is also a member of the Hopewell M. E. Church. She is noted in the neighborhood for her generous disposition and whole-souled nature, her good deeds and kindness making her generally beloved. Besides looking after her own family she cares for two children of her deceased sister.

Gere Clawson, younger brother of Benjamin Clawson, was born July 31, 1847 on the Clawson homestead, and received a public school education. He worked with his father until he reached manhood. And when he commenced farming on his own account settled on a 300-acre tract near Hopewell Church. Though he died in his early prime, Nov. 22, 1885, he had made remarkable progress and was a prosperous farmer and stock raiser. Besides the place already mentioned, he owned a second place of 150 acres on Steward's run, known as the Sutton farm, which he bought, and which is now owned and operated by his son Boyd. Mr. Clawson is interred in Hopewell cemetery. He took no part in politics, though an interested member of the Democratic party, but he was an earnest member of the Hopewell M. E. Church and a leader in all its activities, serving as class leader and steward. He was a man of the highest moral character and strict integrity, temperate in all his habits, and noted for his fidelity to every obligation. He married Feb. 26, 1874 at Livermore, Pa., Margaret Ellen Long, daughter of Jesse M. and Sarah (Smith) Long, and they became the parents of six children, namely: Boyd is mentioned below; Benjamin Milton, born Nov. 14, 1876, is a farmer of Blacklick township; Jesse Knox, born Jan 10, 1879, is a farmer of Blacklick township; George, born March 3, 1881, is a farmer in that township; Cynthia Augusta, born Nov. 4, 1882, married Wesley Cover; Rachel, born Aug. 14, 1884, is the wife of David Creamer. After the death of Mr. Clawson his widow married Charles Creamer, son of Thompson Creamer, and by that marriage had four children, born as follows: Zora, Nov. 13, 1890; William Kebler, Feb. 5, 1892, Sarah Ann, April 16, 1894; Mabel, Nov. 5, 1895.

Generation 3 (con't)

Boyd Clawson, son of Gere and Margaret Ellen (long) Clawson, was born on the homestead Dec. 3, 1874, and attended public school in the home locality. When his father died he was but eleven years old, and he continued to live on the farm with his other until he reached the age of seventeen, when he went to the home of his uncle Benjamin Clawson, on Steward's tun in Blacklick township, passing the next three years there. Then married and settled on the Sutton farm, tract of 10 acres which his father had bought and there he has had his home for the last eighteen years. In addition to general farming he has engaged in stock raising to some extent, and since 1904 has been extensively interested in dairying, shipping his milk to Pittsburg. He built a silo and has other modern arrangements for giving his stock proper care, having a fine herd of Holstein which have proved very profitable. Mr. Clawson is up to date in his work, as the successful dairyman of today must be, and his thrift and careful detail of his surroundings. He is a good citizen, interesting himself in the general welfare, has served his township as school director for five years, and is a valued member of the Presbyterian Church in which he has served as trustee for fifteen years. In politics he is a Republican, present favoring Progressive principles.

On Dec. 20, 1894, Mr. Clawson married Mary Alice Fritz, a native of Blacklick township, daughter of Conrad Fritz, and they have two children, Blair Fritz and Will Gere. Mrs. Clawson is a woman of high accomplishments, a talented musician and successful music teacher.

Generation 3 (con't)

a resident of near Tipton, and one of the old and substantial farmers of Blair county, is the sixth child and third son of George and Sabina (Devlin) Ermine, and was born in Sinking valley, Blair county, Pennsylvania, February 22, 1820. George Ermine was a resident for many years of Sinking valley, in which he died at the advanced age of eighty-one years in 1866. He learned, in early life, the trade of blacksmith, which he followed to some extent, but gave the most of his time to farming, in which he took considerable interest. He was Jacksonian democrat in politics, and had been for many years before his death a consistent and useful member of the Catholic church. He married Sabina Devlin, a native of Sinking valley, and who died in 1863, when in the seventy-fifth year of her age. To them were born ten children, six sons and four daughters: John, Maria, Eleanor, Lucy A., Matthew, Sylvester, George, Aaron, Catherine A., and Martine D. These children are all dead except Sylvester, the subject of this sketch, and George, who is engaged in farming in Sinking valley.

Sylvester Ermine grew to manhood in Sinking valley, and was carefully trained in all of the operations and details of farming. He received his education in the last old subscription and the first of the common schools, and commenced life for himself as a teamster at Allegheny furnace. In a short time he left teaming to remove near Fostoria, where he was engaged in farming until 1865, when he purchased his present farm near Tipton. His farm, which lays well and is very productive, consists of one hundred and thirty-three acres of well improved land.

Sylvester Ermine married Eleanor Harrison, and to their union were born eight children, four sons and four daughters: John H., who married Nancy McFarland, and is a butcher and stock speculator at Tyrone; Alice Emma, deceased; Thomas F., a teamster at Tyrone, who married Mary Glasgow; Lulu wife of William Fuoss, a miller of near Tyrone; Irene, now dead; W. Murray of Bellwood, married Bertha B. Reilly, and is a trainmaster on the Pennsylvania & Northwestern railroad; Florence E., and George S. Mrs. Eleanor Ermine is a daughter of Jerome and a granddaughter of Capt. John Harrison, the latter of whom was a native of Philadelphia, and became a pioneer settler of Logan valley, where he owned several large tracts of land. He was a whig and married and reared a family of eight children: James, Jerome, John, Hamilton, Mary, Elizabeth, Rachel, and Lucy. Jerome Harrison (father of Mrs. Ermine) was born in 1812 in Philadelphia, where he was reared and educated. He came with his father to Blair county, but soon returned Philadelphia, where he learned the trade of coachmaker, after which he returned to Blair county and settled near Birmingham. He was an old-line whig, followed coachmaking, and was for many years a deacon in the Methodist Episcopal church. He was twice married. His first wife was Nancy Stephens, by whom he had three children: Thomas, Eleanor, and Alice. By his second wife, Margaret Clawson, daughter of Josiah Clawson, he had one child Sylvester.

Sylvester Ermine is a democrat in politics, and has cast his ballot for all the democratic candidates for president from James K. Polk, in 1844, down to Grover Cleveland, in 1888.

Thomas Harrison served in the Mexican war, and has for the past twenty-eight years been located in Salt Lake City, Utah, and Alaska, in the mining of gold and silver.

John was killed in Blairsville in 1868 when a train hit his buggy. He was coming home from Indiana where he was just sworn in as a deputy sheriff. He was hit by the Emigrant Train on the Pennsylvania Rail Road. John died of injuries within an half an hour after the accident.

According to the 1850 census, John and his family lived in Conemaugh Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

According to the 1860 census, John and his family lived in Young Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Killed (Blairsville Press, March 27, 1868)

On Monday evening last, John Clawson, more familiarly know as 'Pepper John' of West Wheatfield township, was killed by being struck by the engine of the emigrant train near Blairsville Intersection. Mr. Clawson had been to Indiana during the day, and was sworn in as a constable for West Wheatfield township. He was on his return home, and by some means missed the accommodation train and undertook to walk from the Intersection, where he had eaten his supper and drank a glass of ale - so said, if not worse and more of it, as it is sold in that vicinity in any quantity in violation of the law - which was the last seen of him alive. We are told that the engineer of the train said, that on turning a curve about a mile east of the Intersection, he saw a man sitting on a tie a short distance ahead with his elbow on the rail. He pulled the whistle to put down the brakes, but the distance was too short to stop the train. When the engine whistled, Clawson merely turned his head, and appeared to be in too indifferent a condition to move. After the engine struck him the train was stopped and the injured man taken up and brought to this place, but he died on the road. The body was badly crushed. It was taken back to Westmoreland county for inquest. We have had an unusual number of such cases during the past year, and yet nothing is done to bring to punishment those men who violate the law every day by dealing out the poison which is the cause of it all. Oh, no! they are respectable men, and have large sums of money invested in property, and it must be protected, though for every brick, nail or foot of timber which their property contains, a human being should be destroyed. We relish this kind of justice and protection. Protect a number of men in idleness though a whole community suffers thereby. "Oh, shame, where is thy blush."

Cambria Freeman, 4/2/1868, page 3, col., 1:

John Clawson of West Wheatfield Township, Indiana County., was run over by the Emigrant train on the PRR on Monday week, near Packsaddle and received injuries from which he died the same day.

Indiana Register, Indiana, Pennsylvania, 25 March 1868

KILLED. On last Monday evening, MR. JOHN CLAWSON, constable of West Wheatfield township, this county, was run over by the Emigrant train, westward, at Blairsville Intersection, P.R.R., and so seriously injured that he survived only a short time. The deceased was at the Intersection awaiting one of the trains, and incautiously seated himself upon one of the tracks, where he was run upon by the above train, crushing in the back part of his head, causing his death in the course of half an hour. He had just been sworn into office on Monday, and was enroute to perform some official duty.

Killed (Blairsville Press, March 27, 1868)

On Monday evening last, John Clawson, more familiarly know as 'Pepper John' of West Wheatfield township, was killed by being struck by the engine of the emigrant train near Blairsville Intersection. Mr. Clawson had been to Indiana during the day, and was sworn in as a constable for West Wheatfield township. He was on his return home, and by some means missed the accommodation train and undertook to walk from the Intersection, where he had eaten his supper and drank a glass of ale - so said, if not worse and more of it, as it is sold in that vicinity in any quantity in violation of the law - which was the last seen of him alive. We are told that the engineer of the train said, that on turning a curve about a mile east of the Intersection, he saw a man sitting on a tie a short distance ahead with his elbow on the rail. He pulled the whistle to put down the brakes, but the distance was too short to stop the train. When the engine whistled, Clawson merely turned his head, and appeared to be in too indifferent a condition to move. After the engine struck him the train was stopped and the injured man taken up and brought to this place, but he died on the road. The body was badly crushed. It was taken back to Westmoreland county for inquest. We have had an unusual number of such cases during the past year, and yet nothing is done to bring to punishment those men who violate the law every day by dealing out the poison which is the cause of it all. Oh, no! they are respectable men, and have large sums of money invested in property, and it must be protected, though for every brick, nail or foot of timber which their property contains, a human being should be destroyed. We relish this kind of justice and protection. Protect a number of men in idleness though a whole community suffers thereby. "Oh, shame, where is thy blush."

Cambria Freeman, 4/2/1868, page 3, col., 1:

John Clawson of West Wheatfield Township, Indiana County., was run over by the Emigrant train on the PRR on Monday week, near Packsaddle and received injuries from which he died the same day.

Nelson B. Haire, Figure In Shooting Affray, Dies

New Florence Man, 83, Shot Neighbor, 62

BULLETIN

Nelson B. Haire, 83, New Florence, died at Memorial Hospital shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon. He had shot himself and slashed his wrists yesterday after he fatally shot Clarence C. Brinker, 62, also of New Florence.

NEW FLORENCE--Receipt of a registered letter yesterday touched off a dispute of several months' standing and resulted in the slaying of one New Florence man and the critical wounding of another.

The dead man is Clarence C. (Red) Brinker, 62, retired employee of the

Generation 4 (con't)

Pennsylvania Railroad. His assailant, Nelson B. Haire, 83, is in critical condition at Memorial Hospital, Johnstown. He is being treated for a self-inflicted gunshot wound of the abdomen and slashes of the wrists.

Brinker was killed instantly when he was struck by three bullets from a .38-caliber revolver. The shooting occurred at the double house here occupied by the Haire and Brinker families.

Florence Brinker, 26, daughter of the dead man, may have saved the life of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Brinker, 56, when she grappled with Haire when he turned toward her mother after Mr. Brinker was shot.

Authorities said when she noted the move, she rushed between Haire and her mother and forced the elderly man into a corner. She screamed to her mother to get out of the house and when she had done so, Florence also fled to safety.

Went To Workshop

Officers said Haire then left the house and went to a combination workshop and woodshed to the rear and at one side of the dwelling where he shot himself in the abdomen.

Investigating the shooting yesterday afternoon were New Florence Police Chief Frank J. Rehn, who lives nearby and was the first officer on the scene; Detective Sgt. William Johnston of Troop A, Pennsylvania State Police, Greensburg, and Merle Musick, chief detective of Westmoreland County.

Dispute Rent Agreement

In reconstructing the events leading to the shooting of Brinker, Sgt. Johnston said he learned there had been a dispute between the families for some time over a rent and light bill agreement. The Haires owned the house where the two families lived and the Brinkers were their tenants.

The officer said the agreement called for the Brinker family to pay their rent plus the light bill, less $1. Some time ago, it was reported, Brinker started to pay only half the utility bill rather than the amount stipulated in the agreement.

Sgt. Johnson said he learned that on Tuesday Brinker slipped a check for the rent under the door of the Haire home. It was said Brinker had paid half the light bill. The rent check was refused by the Haires.

Sent Check In Mail

On Wednesday Brinker mailed the check to Haire by registered letter. After the check was received in yesterday's mail, Mr. and Mrs. Haire went to the Brinker side of the house.

Brinker was seated at a table in the living room playing solitaire. Mrs. Brinker and Florence were in the adjoining kitchen. The officer said the two men exchanged heated words, after which Haire shot Brinker through the left leg. The tenant stood up and took a step whereupon two additional shots were fired. One bullet entered Brinker's head near the corner of his right eye and the other struck his neck and came out under the right shoulder blade.

Mrs. Brinker and her daughter went from the kitchen to the living room where Florence tussled with Mr. Haire. After the two women fled, Haire went to the workshop.

Generation 4 (con't)

Chief of Police Rehn, who lives nearby, was attracted by Mrs. Brinker's screams. He rushed to the house where he found Mr. Brinker dead. He said he then turned to the Haire side of the house and found Mr. Haire lying on a couch. He reported that the elderly man tried to reach for the gun lying nearby but the officer was able to pick it up first.

Shot In Abdomen

Mr. Rehn said Haire showed him where he had shot himself in the abdomen. He stated the wounded man kept repeating, "They forced me to do it."

The local police chief said that Mr. Haire had shot himself after he had gone to the workshop, then made his way back to the house and lay down on the couch.

Mr. Rehn, realizing the need for assistance, went to look for help. He said while he was out of the house the wounded man again went to the workshop where he slashed his wrists and was about to hang himself from the rafters when Chief Rehn returned. He said Haire was about to step off a footstool when he was rescued.

Sgt. Johnston said a safety razor blade was found in a pool of blood at the edge of a workbench in the building. It is believed the elderly man used the blade to slash his wrists. A hatchet nearby also was bloodstained.

Haire was removed to Memorial Hospital, Johnstown, where his condition is listed as critical.

List Death Of 2 Men As Homicide And Suicide

No Inquest Planned In Fatal Shooting At New Florence

NEW FLORENCE -- The deaths of two New Florence men who were involved in a shooting affray Thursday will be listed as homicide and suicide, according to Joseph R. Check, Westmoreland County coroner. He stated that an inquest in the case will not be necessary.

The coroner said his records will show that the death of Clarence C. Brinker, 62, was homicide and that of Nelson B. Haire, 83, was suicide.

Mr. Brinker died instantly when he was shot during a quarrel with his landlord, Mr. Haire. The latter died of self-inflicted wounds shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Memorial Hospital, Johnstown.

The elderly man was admitted there about 24 hours earlier to be treated for a gunshot wound of the abdomen and cuts of the wrists. According to police, his injuries were sustained when he tried to take his own life after fatally shooting Brinker, his tenant and neighbor.

Long-Standing Dispute

Authorities said the shooting occurred at a double house occupied by the Haire and Brinker families. The Brinkers rented half the house from Mr. and Mrs. Haire. The dispute between the two men had continued for some time over the paying of rent and utility bills.

According to the investigating officers, Brinker originally had agreed to pay his rent and the utility bills, less $1. Several months ago the tenant refused to pay more than half the utility bills. Last Tuesday, Haire refused to accept a check which did not fulfill the original agreement.

Brinker then sent the check to his landlord by registered letter. Haire and his wife took the letter, after it was received Thursday, to the Brinker living room. The shooting followed a brief argument between the two men. Police said Brinker was killed instantly when Haire fired three charges from a .38 caliber revolver into his body.

The officers said Haire then left the Brinker home, shot himself in the abdomen, slashed his wrists -- apparently with a safety razor blade -- and finally attempted to hang himself.

Haire was taken to Memorial Hospital. Richard P. Wilkinson of Sidman, deputy coroner of Cambria County, said death resulted from shock, loss of blood, and the gunshot wound.

Notes for Annie Burkett:

Indiana Messenger (May 18, 1898)

THE FINDING OF ANNIE BURKETT

In the Muddy Waters of the Conemaugh is Found the Gruesome Corpse of the Suicide.

On the evening of the 10th of March last Annie Burkett, who, if she had lived until the 16th of next November, would have arrived at the age 16 years, took her life. The details of the story, if they were such as were proper to be made public, would be simply a disclosure of life such as we read of frequently, but in this case with the tragedy left out.

The dead girl had been "keeping company" with Robert Brendlinger, a man at least five years her senior. The mother of the girl disapproved of this, and finally the daughter confessed that improper relations had existed, and the mother sternly insisted that the intimacy should cease. The girl was way-ward, the lover persistent and the mother determined. On Thursday night Brendlinger accompanied the girl home from a revival meeting going on at Lockport, Westmoreland county, where the parties lived. He was not permitted to enter the house, and Annie was forbidden further intercourse with him. Robert departed. The girl was enraged. The mother locked the outer doors. Annie went to her room, changed her attire and then broke into the room where her mother, her eldest sister, Maggie, and her youngest brother, aged 7, were sitting, and sprang through a window, screaming as she fled; "I will drown myself! "

The mother did not regard the threat seriously and it was not until the lapse of an hour or two that the family became alarmed at the prolonged absence of the favorite girl. Then a search began. The river was but a short distance away. There were various ways of reaching the treacherous waters of the Conemaugh from the Burkett homestead. Each one of these ways was carefully followed that night, but not a foot track was discovered. Next day the alarm increased. The river was dragged for a mile each way, up and down, but no body was found. As the days lengthened into weeks various rumors got abroad. It was reported that Annie had been seen at Johnstown, Moxham, New Florence, Pittsburg and other places. The developments of last Monday proved all these stories false. On the night she sprang from the window of her home Annie flew to the river and threw herself into its waters and was drowned. The rainfall of Sunday night had magnified the river and the body of the girl was caught up by the current and carried on its surface. It was first noticed at Cokeville, and the parties who saw it made pursuit and it was finally brought to shore a mile below Blairsville on Monday morning. It presented a shocking appearance after its nine-weeks' submergence in the river, but was still recognizable. At the inquest held by Coroner M. M. Davis on Monday a brother and mother and sister identified the remains, on which were found some cheap articles of jewelry, a black skirt, waist and shoes and stockings. The mother and sister who, for the past months, had lived in an agony of suspense and had used every means of ascertaining the fate of the loved one, when brought to the place where the remains were, manifested a grief hard to withstand by the little group of spectators. The Coroner's jury, composed of F. M. Smith, J. M. Hadfield, Thomas Murray, Dr. W. R. Miller, John Long and Robert Reed, returned a verdict of suicide, but expressing no opinion, save that of family troubles, as to the causes leading to the unhappy and unfortunate ending of the young girl's life.

The remains were taken home by the mother yesterday morning and interred during the afternoon.

The father, Mr. Samuel Burkett, has lived all his life at Lockport and for many years has been an employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The mother's maiden name was Clawson. She was born near Jacksonville, this county, and was a daughter of the late James Clawson. The parents, two sisters and two brothers live to mourn the sad end of Annie Burkett, of whom everyone who knew her had none but kind words to speak.

A HISTORY OF BLAIR COUNTY PENNSYLVANIA
UNDER EDITORIAL SUPERVISION OF TARRING S. DAVIS
LUCILE SHENK, ASSOCIATE EDITOR

PUBLISHERS: NATIONAL HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION, INC. HARRISBURG 1931

JOHN DAVID O'BRIEN, late telegrapher for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, completed forty-six years of faithful service for that organization before his retirement in 1919. He was born in Hollidaysburg, on Juniata Street, where members of his family still reside, on July 16, 1854. His parents were Thomas O'Brien, one of Blair County's pioneer settlers, and Catharine Clawson O'Brien.

Mr. O'Brien attended the schools of Blair County and one of his teachers was Miss Martha Neville, who later attained distinction in educational and literary circles as teacher and writer. Mr. O'Brien became a telegrapher on March 1, 1873, when nineteen years of age and entered the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. For ten years he was stationed at Kittanning Point on the famous Horseshoe Bend. Later he was almost continually employed at Hollidaysburg until he retired at the age of sixty-five years. Mr. O'Brien won the regard of his friends and fellow employees among whom he was highly esteemed. He was extraordinarily public spirited and fulfilled the responsible positions allotted him with courage. He performed heroic work on many occasions and on two recorded instances prevented serious wrecks on the railroad. It is a significant fact that Mr. O'Brien never had occasion to report a fellow employee for insubordination. He was retired almost eight years before his death in Hollidaysburg on July 21, 1927. Mr. O'Brien was a communicant of the Roman Catholic Church, adhered to the political principles of the Republican Party, and was a member of the Brotherhood of American Railway Telegraphers. Although his name was suggested for public offices on several occasions but he never aspired to such positions.

On October 25, 1883, he married Miss Elizabeth Hart at Hollidaysburg. She was a daughter of Joseph Hart who came to the United States from Germany when six years of age. Her father was a pioneer settler in the town and conducted an extensive brick manufacturing business. As such he was a dominant factor in the early development of the community. Mrs. O'Brien's mother was Barbara Smith Hart, also a native of Germany, who came to this country at the age of twelve. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien had three children: Mary, who married Richard R. Baker, of Laura Brush Mountain of Pennsylvania; Joseph W., who married Edna Nivley, of Williamsburg, assistant general superintendent of A. & P. Tea Co., and Howard, who died in infancy.

John David O'Brien and Elizabeth Jane Hart had the following children:

- i. MARY⁶ O'BRIEN (daughter of John David O'Brien and Elizabeth Jane Hart)²³⁹. She married RICHARD R. BAKER.
- ii. JOSEPH W. O'BRIEN (son of John David O'Brien and Elizabeth Jane Hart)²³⁹. He married EDNA NIVELY.

She was born on August 27, 1885 in Belgium⁵⁷⁶. She died on October 12, 1956 in Saginaw County, Michigan.

Notes for Dorsey Delp Hollis:

According to the 1920 Census, Dorsey and his family were living in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

[hollis(anc.).ftw]

Dorsey Hollis was killed by a hit and run accident. Dad used to tell the story in such a way that it happened during prohibition. By his version Dorsey had gone to a neighbors to sample some bathtub gin that they were making. On the way back, drunk as a skunk, he was struck by a hit and run driver who was also supposed to be drunk. It was a good story that illustrates how the law was flaunted during our dry period, but it is far from the truth. In the two accounts from the Saginaw News the first thing to note is that the year is 1939--Prohibition ended in 1933!

Saginaw News, Wed., March 1, 1939, page 1
2 CRITICALLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Two Saginaw men were hurt critically early Wednesday in automobile accidents, one apparently involved a hit-run motorist, who is sought by Saginaw sheriff's officers.

The victims are Dorsey D. Hollis, 55, of 2900 Williamson street, a Chevrolet foundry foreman, and Edward W. Waterstradt, 28, of 2926 Thayer street. Both are in grave condition at St. Mary's hospital, suffering possible skull fractures. Hollis, believed to have lain unconscious in the road about 6 hours, suffered greatly from exposure, his hands and feet being frozen.

Waterstradt.....

Sheriff Muehlenbeck said Hollis left home shortly after midnight to visit a neighbor. He was found Wednesday morning by a motorist. Although the victim's body shows no marked lacerations, the sheriff believed him the victim of a hit-runner because of broken glass found nearby. Garages are being checked for the wanted car. The accident occurred about half a mile from the Hollis residence, near the city limits.

That article was followed by:

Saginaw News, Thursday, March 2, 1939, page 1
HIT-RUN VICTIM DEAD OF INJURY

An autopsy Thursday indicated Dorsey H. (sic) Hollis, 55 of 2900 Williamson street, died of injuries inflicted by an automobile, Coroner William E. Honey reported. Hollis, hands and feet frozen, was found laying in the road about half a mile from his home Wednesday morning and died last night at St. Mary's hospital, apparently of exposure and a skull fracture.

Sheriff Muehlenbeck said fragments of glass believed to be from an automobile headlight, found near the scene, were sent via air mail to Washington yesterday afternoon for identification by Federal Bureau of Investigation experts.

No trace has been found of the hit-run motorist believed responsible for Hollis' death. Assistant Prosecutor Montgomery is investigating.

And the plott thickens:

FLINT MAN TAKEN IN HIT-RUN CASE

A three-day search for a hit-run motorist whose automobile early Wednesday struck and fatally injured Dorsey H.(sic) Hollis, 55, of 2900 Williamson street, was believed ended Friday night with the arrest of a Flint man, now held at Saginaw county jail pending formal complaint, likely to be made Monday.

The suspect, Paul Higgins, 27 of 45515 Carlton street, Flint, was arrested by Sheriff Muehlenbeck and Supt. Dale Austin of the Saginaw county identification bureau, after it was established that he had taken his vehicle to a Flint garage for repair of a broken headlight and a dented fender. Authorities say there is other incriminating evidence. Higgins has refused to make any statement.

Then came his obituary:

Saginaw News, Thursday, March 2, 1939

DORSEY H. HOLLIS

Dorsey H.(sic) Hollis, 52, Williamson road, died Wednesday at St. Mary's hospital. Mr. Hollis was born Nov. 11, 1886, at Blairsville, Pa. In 1905 he married Mill Leontine Casten at Blairsville. He came to Saginaw ten years ago and has been employed as a foreman at the Chevrolet foundry. Mr. Hollis was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at New Kensington, Pa. He leaves his wife; three sons and a daughter, Paul, Arthemus, Robert Edward and Dorothy; a brother, Benjamin Hollis of Blairsville and three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Ripence of Saginaw, Mrs. H. L. Reid and Miss Charlotte Hollis of Blairsville. The funeral will take place at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Wallace & Honey funeral home. Rev. Wilbur D. Grose will officiate and burial will be in Forest Lawn.

Some words on the trial of Paul Higgins for hit-and-run

It was in front of the Joseph Swarty farm that Dorsey was struck. The call came to the police on the morning of March 1, 1939 about 7am.

Dorsey was found lying on ice covered ground and was completely covered with snow. He had lain there long enough that he had melted down one inch into the ice. In his pocket was found an envelope with his address and no other identification at all. I speculate at this time that the envelope was his notification of divorce filed by his wife.

He was supposed to have left home around 2:15 am to see a neighbor named Buckner(s), yet he was found about a mile from home.

As to the trial itself it was a joke. The lawyers were the real trial with their objections, lack of interest at reaching truth, and not being serious about justice. Many of the witnesses took the Fifth. The testimony was contradictory without being challenged. It was interesting that the judge did find Higgins guilty of not giving aid!

September 21, 1956

Dear Niece and Family,

I received your lovely gift, you couldn't have gotten one anything I needed or appreciated more. Thanks so very much.

I am very sick and have been very [sick] now for a year. I doubt if I weigh 75 lbs. I have been bedfast since June. I am almost helpless. I am with Jerry. He takes very good care of me-my eyes [are] so bad I can hardly see so I have to have someone to write for me.

Do you remember Jewels' wife? She has been to see me quite often. They live in Detroit.

I hope all the family is fine and thanks again.

Love,

Aunt Ellantine

On the backside of the same letter:

Dear Madeline,

I am Jewels' wife Caroline. It's such a pity here. Aunt Ellantine has gone to a shadow. She has cancer all through her. It started in the bladder. She has a big lump the size of a small football between her legs. She can't eat. Uncle Jerry fixes her breakfast early in the morning before he goes to work. She eats two slices of French bread, cup of coffee, and that's all she eats 'till next day.

Don't mention cancer to her-she doesn't know it. I try to come up as often as I can. I love her dearly, so if I could only do something to help her. Dr. keeps her under dope most of the time the pain is so bad. I am having doctor out today. I will be with her 'till Sunday.

Lots of Love to All,

Your Cousin Caroline

Indiana Evening Gazette (July 7, 1953)

By BILL HASTINGS

Gazette Staff Writer

When the 1953-54 school term opens at Green Township High this September, a familiar personality will be missing from the institution's hallowed halls.

Miss Thankful Clawson, English and Latin teacher for 34 years at the district high school, will be missing from the scene that has featured her guidance of more than 8,000 students in her career as an Indiana County school teacher.

The proverbial gimmick characteristic of high school teenagers directing fun at their tutor, "She (or he) has been here longer than the building," was seldom hurled at this affable Green Township educator simply because it was true.

When Miss Clawson launched her career at Green Township High School in the fall of 1920, classes were held at Starford in a building now utilized as a grade school. Construction on the new Green Township High School was completed a year later and Thankful Clawson, then a veteran of 15 years of classroom calamity, moved her texts to Commodore, site of the present building.

Her retirement this summer marked a termination, of 48 years of teaching, including 39 years in Green Township school systems. "Oh yes, I've taught quite a number of sons and daughters of former students of mine, "jostled the amicable silver-thatched Miss Clawson yesterday, "But I don't think any grandchildren." Closer scrutiny reveals that the retired teacher, long-time favorite as senior class advisor at Commodore, probably taught a number of "grandchildren" during her career which spans 53 years of County history.

When 17-year-old Thankful Clawson passed an examination at Cookport Academy in the spring of 1900, receiving a teacher certificate as her reward, it was undoubtedly beyond her fondest expectations of establishing some sort of record for durability as an Indiana County school teacher.

"That first year at Grisemore (1900-01) paid $25 a month," reminisced Miss Clawson in her Marion Center home yesterday, "But then, I only paid $50 that entire school year.

'I was located in Dixonville the next four years and once had 119 students, sometimes, three in one seat, in a one-room school." Miss Clawson added, "Of course, that was when the Dixonville mines were starting."

Answering an inquiry relative to "law and order" in a one-room school house with 119 students, the friendly teacher replied, "I confess that if I kept order, I didn't do much teaching."

Upon completion of four years at Dixonville and an additional term at Idamar, Thankful Clawson went to Houghton Seminary, N. Y., to pursue her high school education. She didn't receive her diploma until 1911 after leaving school for a three-year period to teach in Rayne and Green Townships, Indiana County. After graduating; from Houghton, Miss Clawson taught in Wisconsin four years, attended Taylor University at Upland, Indiana, and taught at Clymer High School before accepting a position on the Green Township High School, faculty in 1920. The first two principals she served under at Green Township High, Donald Patterson and Dean Siverd, were her former students. Other principals during her 34-year tenure included Mr. Fetterman, T. W. Fullerton and George Joiner.'

What about her best students at Green Township High School?

"I had so many of them," answered Miss. Clawson.

Edna Siverd, now Mrs. Jay Hiner, could read Latin as well as English. And then were were Louise Lovick and Ed Leadbetter. Mrs. Hiner now teaches at Dixonville." And what about her students who entered the teaching profession.

"To mention a few, there's Gertha McAnulty (Green Twp.), Mary Bagley (Green Twp.), Evelyn Nichol, Dean Siverd (Meadville), Milton and Gaylon Walker and Donald Patterson, former County Superintendent of Schools."

"I often wish I would have kept a record of my students," stated the soft-spoken Miss Clawson.

It has been estimated that she taught, at a very minimum, about 8,000 students □ and this figure [wouldn't include her advisees.

Thankful Clawson, daughter of Andrew Bingham Clawson and Martha Jane Bolvin Clawson, was born on a farm near Dixonville December 27, 1883.

Her family heritage reveals her forefathers originally settled near Black Lick before moving to Green Township.

As for the name, Thankful, a "natural" for her students to toy with, she says: "It's a family name. My ancestors from England, a family of Davis, handed the name down, generation to generation. ... I believe there were seven of my ancestors with that name. It's a Puritan name."

While teaching, she utilized the summer vacations to attend the University of Pennsylvania and Chicago University where she received her bachelor's degree. Three summers of study at Columbia University New York, were added to her educational background.

Her memory is rich with experiences of 53 years of teaching, but she eyes the transition of a one-room schoolhouse to the present, elaborate educational system with a calculated scrutiny.

'It seems to me that everything has to be done in the school room today because of television.' I don't mean to condemn television, entirely. I also saw the development of radio lessen a youngster's desire to read."

Generation 5 (con't)

In her retirement at Marion Center, Miss Clawson is going to attempt to satisfy her affinity for reading, a life-long pleasure for her.

After 48 years in the classrooms of, Indiana County, Thankful Clawson's application for retirement was accepted by the Purchase Line School jointure last month.

But retirement may not be easy for Miss Clawson as her love of the profession is deep, best, told when she remarked, with a twinkle in her eye, "I liked seniors but, to think of it, I liked all of them."

Notes for Gertrude Pittman:

The Indiana Gazette, Indiana, Pennsylvania (September 2, 1898)

Mr. M. A. Miller, of Bolivar, and Miss Gertrude Pittman, of Brushvalley township, were united in marriage last Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage in Mechanicsburg by Rev. J. M. Cogley.

According to the 1920 Census, Gertrude and her family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

This write-up was believed to be written by Ruth (Warfel) Robertson:

Andrew and Hannah Pittman were parents of three children, Alphorettam, a baby girl who died at the age of four months and seventeen days. Harry contracted pneumonia and died at the age of nineteen. The four of them are buried in a small cemetery located on Cemetery Road, off route 259N, near the town of Brush Valley, Pa.

Gertrude Pittman, the surviving child of Andrew and Hannah (Pittman) Pittman, Hannah no relation to Andrew, lived on a farm outside of Brush Valley with her parents. The farm was large and today route 259N goes through the "cow pasture" that belonged to the farm. The farm house is still standing with a few changes and the barn is also there in fair condition, When Andrew and Hannah sold their farm they moved into the town of Brush Valley. The house is located along the main highway and directly across from a small gas station-grocery store. After Hannah died in 1928, Andrew sold the house and went to Homewood, Pa. to live with his daughter Gertrude.

Matthew Anderson Miller, son of Michael and Susan (Lapool) Miller, lived about two miles past the Pittman's farm. Michael Miller ran a grist mill on his farm, his other children were John Shields, Golden, Gladys, and Annie.

When Gertrude Pittman married Matthew Miller they moved to Bolivar, Pa., where Matthew worked at Hammonds grist mill and lived in the house beside it. The grist mill was located across the creek from the old Bolivar ball field, near the railroad arch, where the creek flows into the Conemaugh River. His brother John Shields also worked with him. Florence (1899) and Cora (1902) Miller were born in this house. From here the family moved to the corner of Second and Shaffer Street, this house was later known as the Moose Lodge Home.

Andrew Pittman bought a parcel of land on Shaffer Street in Bolivar for his daughter Gertrude, and Matthew built the family home and his own flour mill. Edna (1904) and Gladys (1910) Miller were born here. The local farmers brought their corn and other grains to the mill to be ground and Matthew also made flour and sold to other customers in town.

At the beginning of every summer the Pittman Grandparent's would arrive at the home of Gertrude and Matthew in their horse and buggy, which had a seat in back of the driver's seat, and take Florence and Cora to the farm to spend the summer. This was about a four hour trip which started after lunch. Edna was not well enough to stay and Gladys was too young, but they did visit the farm with their mother at other times. Florence and Cora did small house jobs for their grand mother and would ride in the horse and buggy with their grandpap to take milk, butter and cheese into Indiana (Pa.) to sell on Saturdays.

When work was slow at the grist mill Matthew started working for Ridgeview Coal Company. While working outside doing heavy lifting he was injured and died within two days at the age of 50. He is buried in West View Cemetary, Bolivar, Pa. One of Cora's fond memories of her dad was his taking Florence and her on Sunday visits to the Modesto (Mose) Bernabo farm, who sold milk to the local town people. The farm was located half way up the ridge above the West Bolivar bridge. Also after the girls grandmother Miller died, their grandfather Michael Miller came to live with them until his death in 1912. He always sat in a chair beside the coal stove and slept a lot. About eight years after Matthew died Gertrude married a former boyfriend who had lived in Brush Valley, Daniel Donahey, and they moved to Homewood, Pa. Daniel worked for the post office. Florence, Cora and Edna were married but Gladys was not and was living with her mother and step-father. Gertrude had asthma most of her life and was ill a lot of the time. She contacted pneumonia and died in 1930. Against the girls wishes, she was buried in Homewood Cemetary. Her daughter Edna Mae Miller Wunschell is also buried there. Four years after Gertrude's death Daniel committed suicide using a small hand revolver and is buried beside Gertrude in Homewood (Pa.) Cemetary.

The following is from a clipping found at the Historical Society files in Indiana, Pa.

Harry Pittman, a son of Andrew Pittman, of Brushvalley township died on Saturday of pneumonia after an illness of a week. He was aged 19 yrs-6mo. The funeral was held on Saturday. (4-14-1900)

From the 1850 census the following was recorded:

Benjamin Pittman,	farmer	age 30
Mary Pittman,	wife	age 32
Jane Pittman		age 11
Miriam Pittman		age 10
Mary Pittman		age 5
Andrew Pittman		age 3

This Andrew Pittman should be the husband of Hannah Pittman and the father of Gertrude Pittman.

Suicide In Brushvalley (April, 1923)

David Wike shoots self with gun on Friday. David Wike, aged 54 years, a farmer of Brushvalley Township, committed suicide by shooting himself with a shotgun near his home on Friday evening, resulting in his instant death. Recently Wike has been acting somewhat queerly. He has been more or less quarrelsome and im many instances without apparent cause. On Friday afternoon he attended a public sale on the the farm of Joseph Phillips in theat neighborhood. While there he acted queerly, wanted to fight somebody, but did not succeed in his attempt. After the sale he went to his home and got a shotgun and three loaded shells and going some distance from his home, out along a public road he sat down on a stone, placed the gun against his breast and with a forked stick pushed the trigger, the shot causing instant death. His body was found shortly afterwards and Coroner Stewart notified ex-county Commissioner Johnston Moorhead was deputized to investigate the cause of death. Moorhead found the facts as above stated and decided an inquest was not necessary. Wike is survived by his wife but no children. (Indiana Gazette).

"No children" is in error, as he named his wife and daughters in his will, which was made 6 weeks before his death. According to Wayne Wolfe, he shot himself at the end of Conrad Sleppy's lane after a fight with Sleppy.

Notes for Thomas Porter Clawson:

This is an excerpt from the book, 'HISTORY OF INDIANA COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA' by JOSHUA T. STEWART, published in 1913.

THOMAS PORTER CLAWSON, an agriculturist of Center township, Indiana county, was born April 16, 1861, son of Daniel and Anna E. (Moses) Clawson. The first of the name in Indiana county was Daniel Clawson, a native of Hollidaysburg, Blair Co., Pa., who settled in Blacklick township, on a farm of 160 acres, being one of the pioneers of that region. On this property he erected buildings and spent the remainder of his life in useful, peaceful pursuits, dying there; his remains were interred in Bethel graveyard in Center township. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. Daniel Clawson married Margaret Hollis, of Blair county, and their children were: John; David; Ephraim, who located in Center township; Sally, who married John Clawson, of Center township; and William, who was killed by a horse in childhood.

David Clawson, son of Daniel, was born in Hollidaysburg, Pa., and came to Blacklick township with his parents. There he took up farming, and followed that calling all his life, spending his days upon his farm, where he died, his remains being buried in the Jacksonville Presbyterian cemetery. In politics he was a Republican. While residing in Blacklick he was married to Rebecca Ross, daughter of John Ross, also of Blacklick township, and their children were: Daniel; Margaret, Nancy and John, all three of whom died in childhood; David, who is still residing in Blacklick township; Porter, who was in a Pennsylvania regiment during the Civil war, and now resides in Cokeville, Pa.; Fergus; and Lucinda, who married Abraham Dingman.

Daniel Clawson, son of David, was born in Blacklick township, where he was educated, attending public school. He remained on the homestead until the summer of 1863, when he enlisted, in August, in Company K, 135th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, but was soon thereafter taken sick and confined in Harwood hospital, where he died in October, 1863. He was buried at Washington, D. C. Mr. Clawson was only thirty years old at the time of his untimely death. Politically he was a Republican. The Methodist Church held his membership, and he was a faithful adherent to its teachings. He married Annie E. Moses, of Bedford county, Pa., daughter of Jacob and Hannah (Blake) Moses, and the following children were born of this marriage: Hannah Jane, deceased, who married David Swoger; and Thomas Porter and Agnes, twins, the latter marrying George Moses and residing in Cleveland, Ohio. On June 26, 1872, Mrs. Clawson married (second) Porter Clawson, her brother-in-law, and they had two children: Nora, who married Stewart Wolford, of Cokeville; and Edward, who resides in Blacklick township.

Thomas Porter Clawson, son of Daniel, continued under his mother's protection until he was thirteen years old, when he went to live with his grandfather. There he learned farming from the beginning, and after he married he bought thirty-two acres of land, a portion of the homestead, and began agricultural pursuits for himself. Later on he bought the Rhea farm of 138 acres, and there spent eighteen years, in 1902 selling this property to the Rochester & Pittsburg Coal Company. He now owns the Lucas farm located near his old place.

In 1884 Mr. Clawson was married to Sarah A. Rhea, a daughter of Hugh Rhea, of Center township. They had one son, Arthur, who married Effie Kerr, by whom he has had two children: Miland and Wilbur, and lives in Jacksonville.

Mr. Clawson has always given the Republican ticket his hearty support. As a member and trustee of the Jacksonville Methodist Church he has been very useful, and for eleven years has been an enthusiastic Sunday school teacher; for ten years he has been class leader and steward. A man of abundant energy, Mr. Clawson has always carried through to successful completion anything he set out to accomplish. Genial in disposition, he has won friends, and retained them through long years because one of his sober, industrious habits deserves all confidence and respect.

Generation 5 (con't)

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Florence Hannah Miller:

Florence was called Nana by all of her grandchildren. She did not want to be called grandmother.

Nelson B. Haire, Figure In Shooting Affray, Dies

New Florence Man, 83, Shot Neighbor, 62

BULLETIN

Nelson B. Haire, 83, New Florence, died at Memorial Hospital shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon. He had shot himself and slashed his wrists yesterday after he fatally shot Clarence C. Brinker, 62, also of New Florence.

NEW FLORENCE--Receipt of a registered letter yesterday touched off a dispute of several months' standing and resulted in the slaying of one New Florence man and the critical wounding of another.

The dead man is Clarence C. (Red) Brinker, 62, retired employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad. His assailant, Nelson B. Haire, 83, is in critical condition at Memorial Hospital, Johnstown. He is being treated for a self-inflicted gunshot wound of the abdomen and slashes of the wrists.

Brinker was killed instantly when he was struck by three bullets from a .38-caliber revolver. The shooting occurred at the double house here occupied by the Haire and Brinker families.

Florence Brinker, 26, daughter of the dead man, may have saved the life of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Brinker, 56, when she grappled with Haire when he turned toward her mother after Mr. Brinker was shot.

Authorities said when she noted the move, she rushed between Haire and her mother and forced the elderly man into a corner. She screamed to her mother to get out of the house and when she had done so, Florence also fled to safety.

Went To Workshop

Officers said Haire then left the house and went to a combination workshop and woodshed to the rear and at one side of the dwelling where he shot himself in the abdomen.

Investigating the shooting yesterday afternoon were New Florence Police Chief Frank J. Rehn, who lives nearby and was the first officer on the scene; Detective Sgt. William Johnston of Troop A, Pennsylvania State Police, Greensburg, and Merle Musick, chief detective of Westmoreland County.

Dispute Rent Agreement

In reconstructing the events leading to the shooting of Brinker, Sgt. Johnston said he learned there had been a dispute between the families for some time over a rent and light bill agreement. The Haires owned the house where the two families lived and the Brinkers were their tenants.

The officer said the agreement called for the Brinker family to pay their rent plus the light bill, less $1. Some time ago, it was reported, Brinker started to pay only half the utility bill rather than the amount stipulated in the agreement.

Generation 5 (con't)

Sgt. Johnson said he learned that on Tuesday Brinker slipped a check for the rent under the door of the Haire home. It was said Brinker had paid half the light bill. The rent check was refused by the Haires.

Sent Check In Mail

On Wednesday Brinker mailed the check to Haire by registered letter. After the check was received in yesterday's mail, Mr. and Mrs. Haire went to the Brinker side of the house.

Brinker was seated at a table in the living room playing solitaire. Mrs. Brinker and Florence were in the adjoining kitchen. The officer said the two men exchanged heated words, after which Haire shot Brinker through the left leg. The tenant stood up and took a step whereupon two additional shots were fired. One bullet entered Brinker's head near the corner of his right eye and the other struck his neck and came out under the right shoulder blade.

Mrs. Brinker and her daughter went from the kitchen to the living room where Florence tussled with Mr. Haire. After the two women fled, Haire went to the workshop.

Chief of Police Rehn, who lives nearby, was attracted by Mrs. Brinker's screams. He rushed to the house where he found Mr. Brinker dead. He said he then turned to the Haire side of the house and found Mr. Haire lying on a couch. He reported that the elderly man tried to reach for the gun lying nearby but the officer was able to pick it up first.

Shot In Abdomen

Mr. Rehn said Haire showed him where he had shot himself in the abdomen. He stated the wounded man kept repeating, "They forced me to do it."

The local police chief said that Mr. Haire had shot himself after he had gone to the workshop, then made his way back to the house and lay down on the couch.

Mr. Rehn, realizing the need for assistance, went to look for help. He said while he was out of the house the wounded man again went to the workshop where he slashed his wrists and was about to hang himself from the rafters when Chief Rehn returned. He said Haire was about to step off a footstool when he was rescued.

Sgt. Johnston said a safety razor blade was found in a pool of blood at the edge of a workbench in the building. It is believed the elderly man used the blade to slash his wrists. A hatchet nearby also was bloodstained.

Haire was removed to Memorial Hospital, Johnstown, where his condition is listed as critical.

List Death Of 2 Men As Homicide And Suicide

No Inquest Planned In Fatal Shooting At New Florence

NEW FLORENCE -- The deaths of two New Florence men who were involved in a shooting affray Thursday will be listed as homicide and suicide, according to Joseph R. Check, Westmoreland County coroner. He stated that an inquest in the case will not be necessary.

The coroner said his records will show that the death of Clarence C. Brinker, 62, was homicide and that of Nelson B. Haire, 83, was suicide.

Mr. Brinker died instantly when he was shot during a quarrel with his landlord, Mr. Haire. The latter died of self-inflicted wounds shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Memorial Hospital, Johnstown.

Generation 5 (con't)

The elderly man was admitted there about 24 hours earlier to be treated for a gunshot wound of the abdomen and cuts of the wrists. According to police, his injuries were sustained when he tried to take his own life after fatally shooting Brinker, his tenant and neighbor.

Long-Standing Dispute

Authorities said the shooting occurred at a double house occupied by the Haire and Brinker families. The Brinkers rented half the house from Mr. and Mrs. Haire. The dispute between the two men had continued for some time over the paying of rent and utility bills.

According to the investigating officers, Brinker originally had agreed to pay his rent and the utility bills, less $1. Several months ago the tenant refused to pay more than half the utility bills. Last Tuesday, Haire refused to accept a check which did not fulfill the original agreement.

Brinker then sent the check to his landlord by registered letter. Haire and his wife took the letter, after it was received Thursday, to the Brinker living room. The shooting followed a brief argument between the two men. Police said Brinker was killed instantly when Haire fired three charges from a .38 caliber revolver into his body.

The officers said Haire then left the Brinker home, shot himself in the abdomen, slashed his wrists -- apparently with a safety razor blade -- and finally attempted to hang himself.

Haire was taken to Memorial Hospital. Richard P. Wilkinson of Sidman, deputy coroner of Cambria County, said death resulted from shock, loss of blood, and the gunshot wound.
